Weill Cornell Medicine Dean’s Entrepreneurship Lab & Entrepreneurship at Cornell Present:

2018 Startup Symposium

1300 York Avenue - Uris Auditorium - New York, NY
Wednesday, January 24, 2018, 5:00pm – 8:30pm

Weill Cornell Medicine Dean’s Entrepreneurship Lab and Entrepreneurship at Cornell will join forces to host an exciting evening showcasing innovation and startups that are shaking up the life sciences space. Hear from scientists and entrepreneurs themselves about what it takes to innovate in the life sciences, identify and invent compelling products, and ultimately build a company.

Audience members will include prominent venture capital firms, biopharma representatives, technology and biotech entrepreneurs, clinicians, scientists, doctors, and members of the Tri-Institution, including Weill Cornell Medicine, Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, Rockefeller University, Hospital for Special Surgery, and New York Presbyterian Hospital.

Past participants at Dean’s E-Lab events have included: Canaan Partners, FOS Capital Partners, Flagship Ventures, Harris & Harris Group, Juno Therapeutics, Merst Ventures, Mid Atlantic Bio Angels, OrbiMed Advisors, Pfizer, Progenics Pharmaceuticals, Takeda Pharmaceuticals, Venrock, and many more.
