LEADERSHIP ASSESSMENT FOR MANAGERS COURSE SUMMARY

o Jan. 17-20, 2018.

Ives Hall – ILRHR 7451 (GRAD STUDENTS ONLY)

The purpose of the 3 ½ day course is to assess the leadership and management skills of students by providing an opportunity to gather feedback on their strengths and developmental needs. The first two days focus on self-awareness and employs several experiential exercises and self-assessment instruments including, Leadership 360 Assessment, the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI), Thomas-Kilman Conflict Mode Instrument (TKI), and the Fundamental Interpersonal Relations Orientation-Behavior (FIRO-B). Class members will be trained in giving and receiving feedback from team members. Activities in the last days of the course will include various leadership and team challenges and work on a personal leadership brand. Professional coaches will observe students in group work on leadership cases and exercises and provide feedback on their observations and the results of individual instruments. The final day of the course students will focus on goal setting for future leadership development. The only charge for the course is purchasing 4 HBS cases (approximately $20) and students will receive 1 ½ S/U credit. ILR students receive graded credit.
